The Harmful Sexual Behaviour Support Service dealt with individual cases Ion-consensual touching of others exual harassment (including stalking) exual assault Callers' Profession Number of cases

155

40

39

38

11

7

Level of concern as per Brook's traffic light tool GREEN AMBER RED 306

Number of cases

* cases of harmful sexual behaviour reported to the service were categorised using the Brook traffic light tool and Hackett continuum

100% of professionals contacting

the service

(that responded to our survey)

J recommend it to someone else

160

would

Harmful Sexual Behaviour

What the service

Drawing on insights from this pilot, resources have been developed by SWGfL and the

Marie Collins Foundation to help professionals identify and respond to harmful sexual behaviour.

also produced

Risk Assessment template

A good practice example

Making an effective referral template

A good practice example to aid schools and other organisations (such as care facilities) in writing effective referrals to their local Children's Social Services.

FAQs

encounter similar scenarios.

Template School Policy

A good practice example for schools to create a good foundation for understanding, recognising, and responding to incidents of Harmful Sexual Behaviour.

template to assist schools and other children's organisations to carry out a risk assessment when responding to incidents of Harmful Sexual Behaviour.

Based on cases reported to the Harmful Sexual Behaviour Support Service, provides some guidance on what to do should professionals

Type of harmful sexual behaviour reported to the service

Jsing sexualised language persistently iexual name calling/jokes

Non Harmful Sexual Behaviour related calls

Jsing sexually violent language

Prolific viewing of sexual content (on and offline) Oppose con services of the services

iexual image sharing

Online sexual harassment

Non-consensual image sharing haring pornography

pskirting/downblousing

oveurism'

Bestiality

20

60

80

100

120

140

Number of cases

Over half of the contacts to the Support Service were in relation to harmful sexual behaviour incidents, over 25% were general enquiries relating to Harmful Sexual Behaviour and over 20% were requests for resources and materials.

40

a clearer definition of Harmful Sexual Behaviour There is a and comprehensive need for a more idance on how to suitably consistent multirespond and support agency approach which is children and young people displaying lower-level understood by all professionals behaviours. locally.

DSL (Designated

Teacher

School staff

Head teacher

Social worker

Medical professional

Other Harmful Sexual

key Learnings.

nave indicated that they would benefit from

Charitable sector

Behaviour service

Social care

Parent

Safeguarding Lead)

Holistic early intervention services are needed to suitably support children and young people locally.

SENDspecific resources and tool kits will help professionals with their Harmful Sexual Behaviour response.

